

The perfect balance of pressure diffusing memoryfoam and comfort gel relief that will help to maintain a regulated body temperature and increased comfort while you sleep. The TheraCool overlay is perfect for those warm sleepers who struggle to get the comfort they deserve.

Comes with removable washable cover

MemoGel overlay will help provide relief from the following conditions and hot sleeping in general:

- Hot sleeping environment through either high temperature or high humidity.
- Menopause and post Menopause.
- Sunburn and body heat retention
- Idiopathic Hyperhidrosis
- Hot flashes and hot flushing
- Infections, fevers and temperatures
- Insufficient airconditioning

Reverse the topper to have pure memoryfoam comfort.

Good for everybody through all seasons and temperatures.

Memoryfoam moulds to your shape, and minimizes pressure points by distributing weight more evenly.

How it works: Warmth is transferred from the body into the gel therefore giving you cooler nights sleep. It works on the principle of conductivity whereby a product or material with a high level of conductivity such as gel will be better served to remove heat from any objects it is touching - in this case your body.
